

I am happy with NJ's law. It has greatly reduced the number of unsolicited and unwanted calls to my family and my business, many at dinner time, thereby taking away from my family. Please leave the law alone and go after the e-mail telemarketers for disturbing my privacy with unwanted, unsolicited and in many cases sexual requests for products I neither need nor want!!!!